Hymn ~ Make me a Channel of your Peace
Words – Sebastian Temple, tune - Channel of Peace

Make me a channel of your peace:
Where there is hatred, let me bring you love;
Where there is injury, your healing pow'r,
And where there's doubt, true faith in you.

Make me a channel of your peace:
Where there's despair in life let me bring hope;
Where there is darkness, - only light,
And where there's sadness, ever joy.

O Spirit, grant that I may never seek
So much to be consoled as to console,
To be understood as to understand,
To be loved as to love with all my soul - .

Make me a channel of your peace.
It is in pardoning that we are pardoned,
In giving to all that we receive,
And in dying that we're born to eternal life.

Reading ~ Do not stand at my grave and weep by Mary Elizabeth Frye

Read by Jane Hanna

Do not stand at my grave and weep,
I am not there, I do not sleep.
I am in a thousand winds that blow,
I am the softly falling snow.
I am the gentle showers of rain,
I am the fields of ripening grain.
I am in the morning hush,
I am in the graceful rush

Of beautiful birds in circling flight,
I am the starshine of the night.
I am in the flowers that bloom,
I am in a quiet room.
I am in the birds that sing,
I am in each lovely thing.
Do not stand at my grave bereft
I am not there. I have not left.

Choral performance ~ Blowing in the Wind by Bob Dylan

Performed by Holy Cross RC School Choir, Fulham. Conducted by Matt Pritchard

Reading ~ He is the one who.....

Written and read by Vivek-Anand Dattani

He was the one who.....
He was the one who was the carer of our family,
He was the one who looked after us you see...
He was the one who taught us how to drive,
He was the one who knew how to keep our fire alive,
He was the one who never held a grudge,
He was the one who would give us the right nudge...
He was the one who was there for us,
He was the one who did not like a fuss,
He was the one who calmed us down,
He was the one who knew how to turn our frown upside down...
He was the one who loved cars,
He was the one who looked to the stars,
He was the one who loved to listen to the classics,
He was the one who influenced our choice of music...
He was the one who taught us respect,
He was the one who loved us nonetheless,
He was the one who taught us how to care,
He was the one who loved to dare...
He was the one who would remind us,
He was the one who would advise us
He was the one who would teach us,
He was the one who would guide us...
He is our big brother.

Choral performance ~ Only a Shadow by Rev Carey Landry

Hymn ~ The Lord's My Shepherd

23rd Psalm, tune by Crimond

The Lord's my shepherd, I'll not want;
He makes me down to lie
In pastures green; he leadeth me
The quiet waters by.

My soul he doth restore again,
And me to walk doth make
Within the paths of righteousness,
E'en for his own name's sake.

Yea, though I walk in death's dark vale,
Yet will I fear no ill:
For thou art with me, and thy rod
And staff me comfort still.

My table thou hast furnished
In presence of my foes;
My head thou dost with oil anoint
And my cup overflows.

Goodness and mercy all my life
Shall surely follow me;
And in God's house for evermore
My dwelling-place shall be.

Musical Performance ~ 'Pavane' by Faure

Performed by Mark & Claire Phillips

CD Track ~ High by The Lighthouse Family

Reading ~ Masques By Karen Nelson.

Read by Roger Scrivens

In idle conversation you ask me about my children.

You are an acquaintance.

I do not know you well and so I don a masque.

I speak happily of mischief, but I do not speak of death.

I do not want to see the shadow of uncertainty pass your face.

And feel the awkward silence that falls like a curtain between us.

I do not want to say, "It's okay, that was a long time ago".

It will never be quite "okay" and sometimes it seems like yesterday.

And so I take my masque along with me through life

like a perpetual Halloween night, to hide just a bit from people and to preserve my strength.

For mourning is tiring and each time I recount that day of death,

I am a little wearied.

I would much rather speak of the joys of his life

than the sorrows of his death,

to strangers who absently ask of children.

Yet tragedy is more universal than ever I had known before it touched my life.

And so at times I wonder who else looks out from behind a masque.

Hymn ~ Dear Lord And Father Of Mankind

Words by John Whittier, tune by Repton

Dear Lord and Father of mankind,
Forgive our foolish ways!
Re-clothe us in our rightful mind,
In purer lives thy service find,
In deeper reverence praise.

In simple trust like theirs who heard,
Beside the Syrian sea,
The gracious calling of the Lord,
Let us, like them, without a word
Rise up and follow thee.

O Sabbath rest by Galilee!
O calm of hills above,
Where Jesus knelt to share with thee
The silence of eternity,
Interpreted by love!

Drop thy still dews of quietness,
Till all our strivings cease;
Take from our souls the strain and stress,
And let our ordered lives confess
The beauty of thy peace.

Breathe through the heats of our desire
Thy coolness and thy balm;
Let sense be dumb, let flesh retire;
Speak through the earthquake, wind,
and fire,
O still small voice of calm!
